1. It is reported that a local Yugoslav nationalist departed a few days ago to visit King Peter and his London committee. He carried a proposal from the Greek Aliens Directorate, with the approval of Minister of Public Order Napoleon Zervas, that the Yugoslavs send a prominent personality to Greece to coordinate all Yugoslav factions. The proposal also would have the Yugoslavs issue a statement blaming the Greek internal strife on Tito and disclaiming any interest in Macedonia; agree to keep the Aliens Directorate advised on all activities in Greece; and send Yugoslav commandos from Bari to start working in Yugoslavia.
2. The Greeks managed to send General Georgios Reppas along with the Yugoslav nationalist as a check. Reppas is due back in two weeks.
